

Systems/Products

Constructor Finland Oy has a wide range of storage equipment to meet your needs. Based on work with our customers and full understanding of their requirements, we are able to propose various solutions which can best utilize the space available. We consider also the product selectivity, picking rates and investment required. Through evaluating these different options with our customer, we can ensure the best return on their investment..

Our goal is always to provide the most efficient solution that fully meets our customers needs.